

Week 11 - Splined and polished

Phew, that was quite a term! Class two is now finished, and I've spent the last two weeks splining and polishing (whenever avatar isn't conspiring to keep me out of mischief, at any rate). I'll spare you the tales of gimbal lock and the horror of going from blocking to splining - suffice to say, it's probably knocked five years off my life . At some point this week I'll make a nice reel summing up all my class 1&2 work so far, but for the time being, here's your weekly animation fix:

As a reward for finishing class 2 intact, I've just finished watching the final season of Battlestar Galactica. "Epic" doesn't even come close! It's a very long time since I've watched any TV series as good as this, and the ending definitely didn't disappoint. Some very talented people have quite clearly poured their souls into it, and it shows - the end result is nothing short of spectacular. Miss this at your peril!
